THE JAMES STEWART "MANSION HOUSE", DEXTER LANE, ROCHESTER, WAS BUILT IN 1686. THIS IS THE OLDEST HOUSE REMAINING IN ALL OF OLD ROCHESTER TERRITORY AS OF 1979. PHOTO AND INFORMATION COURTESY OF THE ROCHESTER HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

Rochester 300

When we celebrate Rochester 300 the celebration encompasses a vast territory that includes Rochester, Mattapoisett, Marion and a part of Wareham, all at one time united under the name of Rochester. Our cover this week was furnished by the Rochester Historical Society. On the cover, from an 1879 atlas of Plymouth County by George H. Walker and Company, we have selected two plates showing a portion of Mattapoisett Harbor and Sippican Harbor.

If you examine these maps with a magnifying glass you will see many names familiar to this area even today. These captions identify the homes then located in the villages of Marion and Mattapoisett. On Page 2, also from the same source, is a reproduction from a steel engraved plate showing the summer residence of Charles H. Leonard which was located at Eastover Farm. This original large and beautiful farmhouse and outbuildings were destroyed by fire and, at present, only the well enclosure remains according to Rochester historians.

Selectmen's Meeting

HARBOR STUDY PROPOSED

Priscilla Hathaway and Francis B. Montague of the Coastal Zone Management Committee proposed to Mattapoisett Selectmen R. William Blasdale and John DeCosta that the town apply for matching grant funds from Massachusetts for the purpose of a study of town coastal resources or harbor management. Mrs. Hathaway advocated the study of biological resources such as shellfish bed, marsh plants, fish resources and animal life along the shore. She said that these resources are becoming increasingly valuable to the town as population grows and that no such study has been done. She suggested that, should an oil spill occur at some point in the future, the town would be completely unaware of the value of lost resources. The Selectmen said that one possible study which has already been considered quite a few times in recent months is that of harbor use to utilize the mooring space more efficiently and to keep the harbor waters navigational. Mr. Montague suggested that that kind of study might be looked upon with favor by the state because they are looking for active projects. The Selectmen said they would approach any such applications with caution to be sure that the town does not give up its control of its own harbor and resources. Mr. Montague said that the available grants are federal in origin and disbursed through State Coastal Zone authorities in a participating split of 80% grant to 20% town funding. Selectman Blasdale said that the Board's policy is to not seek money the town doesn't have to have. Selectman DeCosta said he could see a very definite advantage to a harbor study.

The Selectmen asked Mrs. Hathaway and

ASKS FENCE TO PROTECT PROPERTY

George S. White requested, by letter, that Selectmen install a chain link fence between his property and Center School to prevent continuous vandalism. The Selectmen referred the matter to the Mattapoisett School Committee.

PRAISE FOR ASSISTANCE

Selectmen received a copy of a letter sent to Fire Chief Paul Bradley from Captain Donald R. Bernard, acting chief of the Fairhaven Fire Department. Captain Bernard thanked the Mattapoisett Fire Department for responding to a fire on January 12th at the Atlas Tack Corporation in Fairhaven. He stated that the Mattapoisett assistance was of great value in bringing the fire under control and extinguishing it. Captain Bernard praised the cooperation that brought the Mattapoisett firefighters to the help of Fairhaven and expressed that town's thanks.

DISTURBED WITH REGIONAL BUDGET

Mattapoisett Selectmen received a copy of a letter sent to the Old Rochester School Committee from the Marion Board of Selectmen advising that they are disturbed with the 8% increase in the regional schools' operating budget over last year.

Selectmen received a letter from the chairmen of the Finance Committees of Marion, Mattapoisett, and Rochester to the Old Rochester Regional District School Committee chairman reminding the school committee of their previous agreement to hold the Regional's fiscal year 1980 budget to an increase not to exceed 6%.

OLD COLONY BUDGET UP 17%

Selectmen received from Old Colony Vocational Technical High School Committee a tentative operating and maintenance budget for fiscal 1980. The budget shows an increase over 1979 of $196,000.00 which is a 17% increase over 1979. This $196,000.00 is composed of $17,000 in the salary account to make up for insufficient salary budget of Fiscal Year 1979; $85,000 is for Fiscal Year 1980 salary increase and $41,000 for the Controllable Cost. Mattapoisett's assessment for 1979 was $144,571.01; for Fiscal Year 1980 the assessment will be $184,266.14, an increase of $39,695.13 which is 27% over 1979. Mattapoisett's enrollment as of October 1, 1977 was 63 pupils and for October 1, 1978 was 73 pupils.

Finance Committees to School Committee

LETTER TO ORR DISTRICT SCHOOL COMM.

The following letter is to Mrs. Patricia Ryan, ORR District School Committee, from the chairmen of the Finance Committees of Marion, Mattapoisett and Rochester:

Dear Madam Chairman:

The three Finance Committees were given a commitment last March by your Committee that the Operating Budget in the year 1979-80 would not increase more than 6% from this year's operating budget. It was on the strength of that commitment that the Finance Committees agreed that they would recommend your proposed budget to our town meetings last spring.

Specifically, the commitment was that the operating budget of $2,510,299 for this year would not be over $2,660,917 for the coming year.

We were greatly disturbed to learn that your Committee had voted to establish an 8% increase as a target for the upcoming budget work. Our concern is strengthened by the fact that you do not anticipate receiving as much from the State, nor do you anticipate as much surplus cash, for the coming year. Both of these will further substantially increase the assessments to our towns.

This letter is to inform you that we expect that your Committee will be able to make the reductions necessary to end up with an Operating Budget no more than that outlined above, so that the Finance Committees can recommend your budget to our Town Meetings without reservations.

Sincerely,

Robert P. Demeo, Chairman, Marion Finance Committee.

FINE ARTS GROUP TRIP

On Thursday, February 22nd, the Fine Arts Group and interested members of the Mattapoisett Woman's Club will tour the Museum of the American China Trade in Milton, Massachusetts. After touring the Greek Revival Mansion which houses an outstanding collection of porcelain, fine furnishings and other memorabilia of the period when American-Chinese trade flourished from the 1700's forward, the group will visit an adjacent museum. The adjacent museum contains a fine collection of early pewter and furniture. Both tours are group tours and coffee will be served. A small fee covers the day's charges.

The group should convene in the Congregational Church parking lot to depart by 8:45 A.M. Transportation will be by private car. Reservations should be made by calling Priscilla Hathaway at 758-2579 by February 14th.

3rd ANNUAL DIXIELAND JAZZ JAMBOREE

On Sunday, February 11th, the famed Bourbon Street Paraders will play an afternoon of good old time jazz in Hoyt Hall at Tabor Academy. This annual event benefits the Tabor Scholarship Fund. Tables, arranged pops style, seat eight and you may make reservations and buy tickets by calling Tabor Academy, 748-0590. Beer and wine will be available as well as soft drinks.

The Bourbon Street Paraders is a dixieland band whose versatility is unequalled throughout the east. Six musicians are led by Lee Childs, clarinetist, one of the most proficient in the country. Bob Leary, a graduate of Tabor's class of 1979, and whose family lives in Marion, plays the banjo and guitar. Chuck Lieban on cornet, Buzzy Drootin on the drums, Ed Stoddard on trombone, and Henry Fisher, the bass fiddle player who captivates audiences with his sense of humor and ad-lib, parodies, round out the combo.

The public is heartily welcome at this festive occasion.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

Gallery: There will be an invitational show of the treatment of Nudes, opening on February 14th in the Cecil Clark Davis Gallery. Members are invited to the opening; public is invited Monday - Saturday 9-5; Sunday 1-5.

On Friday, February 9th, at 8:00 P.M., the Art Center will show the movie, Mel Brooks' "Twelve Chairs". Wine and beer will be served.

"Twelve Chairs", directed by Mel Brooks, stars Ron Moody, Frank Langella and Dom DeLuise. Before "Young Frankenstein" and "Blazing Saddles" there was "The Twelve Chairs", Mel Brook's uproarious comedy about an improverished nobleman, a charming rogue, and a village priest who travel across Russia, Siberia, and the Crimea in search of hidden jewels. Their thwarted attempts are, in the words of critic Judith Crist, "a complete joy". This may well be the nuttiest hunt of them all, from the author-director of "The Producers".

RECEIVES CERTIFICATE OF MERIT

Congratulations to Sara McIntire of Mattapoisett, recipient of a Certificate of Merit from the Massachusetts Association of Mathematics Leagues for her performance in the 1978-79 Olympiad Exam. This honor was extended to those participants who placed in the top 5% among 5,582 students representing 160 schools. From 39 Old Rochester Regional High School participants, Sara was the top scorer with 13 others, who placed in the top half among all contestants. Second place honors for ORRHS went to John Marvin of Mattapoisett whose score placed him in the top 20%. Third ranking participant was Stephanie Napoli of Marion who placed in the top 30%.

Bird Count

The Audubon Society is documenting range expansion and population stabilization in a given area of the cardinal, tufted titmouse and mockingbird. A census count is to be taken on February 10 and 11 and the public is asked to assist. The birds are well established in southern New England and continue to advance slowly northward each year.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Your most interesting story of the very last of the square-rigged whaleships, "our" Wanderer, has been plastic covered for keeps in our home. Friends thought I should tell you of the deadeye's return to Mattapoisett from the Grinnell's apartment in N.Y.C. When my sister-in-law discovered how heavy it was, she said we are going to take a cab. When the taxi driver put it in the front seat, he said, "Lady, you must have a bomb in here". He decided to take us in, when I told him it was just a very old deadeye. At the bus station, I had to check my suitcase to New Bedford, rather than the deadeye; fortunately, for that suitcase was lost for over a week. The deadeye would have been late for the two last-minute teas Lydia Walker and I gave to welcome it back to the home of the man who had "built" the Wanderer. I could not dress up for the teas for I had to wear my bus clothes! But we dressed up the Dead-

Three copies of your Presto are being sent to Mrs. Robert Grinnell, Mr. Peter Grinnell and to the Grinnell's friend, Dr. J. M. Dunning of Arlington, MA. Dr. Dunning excavated some bronze spikes when the Grinnells found the deadeye. He has kindly offered to donate one to our Historical Society. So, thanks from several of us.

Also, your article of the adventures of the Wanderer in the North Pacific, the Arctic Ocean and "our" Atlantic will enhance the seeing of the movie Down to the Sea in Ships. Although we won't be able to see the bronze spikes, I for one will look for the deadeyes.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Invidious indications from the Iranian situation demonstrate outrageous foreign relations' ineptitude by the White House. When PBS Robert MacNeil questioned 78 year old exiled Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini at his French headquarters in Neauphle-le-Chateau, January, Khomeini said that "NO" member of the American government had ever contacted him. That negative reply speaks louder than all of Washington's glowing press releases.

The 2500 year old peacock throne appears plucked as Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi, America's steadfast ally of 38 years, loving his homeland and people too much to have further bloodshed, wept as he courageously left his beloved homeland. Iran's future is grim: religious extremism; zenophobia; retreat from modern technology to agrarian isolationism; and a more then probable Communist takeover.

I feel sorry for the youthful Iranians, whose exuberant protests may eventually destroy the security and stability they now possess. The aging Aytollah Khomeini's bitterness has clouded his judgement and Iran has lost its true leader.

Little League Basketball

Saturday, January 27 - Gold stung Green 19 to 13 in a make-up game; Monday, January 29 - Green falls short to Purple 4 to 24; Black vs White was a game that right up till the end was uncertain. White was the winner 14-12; Wednesday, January 31 - Gold's 9 points was not enough to Purple's 10; Orange vs Fairhaven was a better game than the score tells, Fairhaven 28, Orange 19; Thursday, February 1 - Fairhaven playing well beat Green 27-10; White took a 6-point game from Red, 16-10; Blue still playing very well beat Orange 28-18.

Friday, February 2 - Black beat a very tough Fairhaven team by two points, 14-12 (this was a standout game for both teams). Orange passed by Gold 27 to 3; Red beat Green in a confusing game, 26 to 12.

Outstanding player for this week, Steve McCabe. His 6 points sparked a 2 point win over Fairhaven.

League standings will be coming out next week.

COLLEGE-BOUND SENIORS AT OLD COLONY

The Guidance Office at Old Colony Regional Vocational Technical High School announces that parents of college-bound seniors should be aware that Financial Aid Forms are still available in the Guidance Office. If your son or daughter will require financial assistance and has not already secured this form, it should be filled out as soon as possible. To meet eligibility requirements for the Mass. State Scholarship Program, the Financial Aid Form must be mailed by February 15, 1979.

The Financial Aid Form is an attempt to simplify the process by combining several applications into one form. This new form takes the place of the Parents Confidential Statement, the Mass. State Scholarship Application, and the Basic Educational Opportunity Grant.

College applications should be well in the process of being filed by now, and

WINTER SCHOOL OF GOLF

The 15th Annual Winter School of Golf will be held at the New Bedford Y.M.C.A. starting the week of February 26 and running for five weeks. Huston "Paddy" LaClair, golf professional at the Country Club of New Bedford, will once again do the instructing. Interested men and women are asked to contact the New Bedford YMCA for additional information and class time.

Classes will be limited to four people and will be held mornings and afternoons Monday through Friday. One hour's instruction will be given for five weeks to those interested in learning or improving their game.

The basics will be stressed for all students with progressive assistance given to the more advanced golfer. Equipment will be supplied or the golfers may use their own.

The swing is the main skill needed in playing a decent game of golf and the indoor range at the New Bedford Y.M.C.A. is ideal for instruction and practice.

"AN EVENING OF HISTORY AND POLITICS"

"An Evening of History and Politics" will be presented by the Arnold M. Dubin Labor Education Center and the SMU Jewish Student Service Center at Southeastern Massachusetts University on Monday, February 12, at 7:30 P.M. in Room 117 of the Group I building.

The evening will include a film, "The Inheritance", which is the story of the forming of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America, followed by a lecture on Jewish Unions and the American labor movement by Edward Goldstein, lecturer in history and Judaic studies at Clark University. The program will conclude with a discussion on "The Future Role of Jews in the Labor Movement", led by Ron Bloom, regional director of the Jewish Labor Committee.

Admission is free and the public is invited.

JULIAN BOND TO SPEAK AT SMU

Georgia State Senator Julian Bond will deliver a free public lecture at Southeastern Massachusetts University on Sunday, February 11, at 8 P.M. in the main auditorium. His appearance here is sponsored by the SMU Lecture Series and the Black Student Union.

Bond, 38, first came to national prominence as an activist in the civil rights movement of the 1960's. He helped found the Committee on Appeal for Human Rights (COAHR) and the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) while a student at Morehouse College in Atlanta.

Bond was elected in 1965 to the Georgia State House of Representatives, but was barred from taking his seat by legislators who objected to his statements on the war in Vietnam. He won two special elections in 1966, but ultimately it took a ruling by the U. S. Supreme Court to give him his seat in the legislature in 1967. He served four terms in the Georgia House, and was elected to the state Senate in 1974.

Bond's collected speeches have been published under the title A Time to Speak. Several years ago he was named to Time magazine's list of 200 young American leaders.

SPRING FLOWER SHOW

Spring is closer than you think because the dates for a traditional New England spring event were announced today.

The 108th New England Spring Flower Show will be held Saturday, March 17, through Sunday, March 25, at Commonwealth Pier, Exhibition Hall, 170 Northern Avenue, Boston, according to Mrs. Patricia Storey, president and acting executive director of the Massachusetts Horticultural Society, which sponsors the event.

This will be the third year the Horticultural Society has staged the flower show in the spacious Commonwealth Pier Exhibition Hall, located between Anthony's Pier 4 and Jimmy's Harborside Restaurants, with easy access from Boston's Southeast Expressway and South Station, as well as from the North, and with acres of parking.

More than 150 garden and trade exhibitors participate in the show each year, attracting thousands of New Englanders. This nine-day spring spectacle is the largest and longest running show of its kind in the country, according to Mrs. Storey.

Information on special advance sale tickets, special discount rates for groups and senior citizens is available by writing to Flower Show Tickets, Massachusetts Horticultural Society, 300 Massachusetts Avenue, Boston, MA. 02115, or by phoning the Society at (617) 536-9280.

The 1979 Flower Show opens Saturday, March 17, at noon, and will be open daily from 10 A.M. to 10 P.M. except Sundays, when it will close at 8 P.M.

The Massachusetts Horticultural Society is located at Horticultural Hall, 300 Massachusetts Avenue, Boston, across from Symphony Hall.

CONG. STUDDS IN NEW BEDFORD

Congressman Gerry Studds, D-Mass., will return to the 12th Congressional District February 9-12 for four full days of personal appearances, including open meetings on Cape Cod, Martha's Vineyard and Nantucket and a number of activities in the Greater New Bedford and South Shore areas.

Mr. Studds will kick off his schedule at 10 A.M. on Friday, February 9, by conducting a class on "The Congress" at Southeastern Massachusetts University. He will then appear from 11 to 12 noon at the New Bedford Free Public Library on Pleasant Street where he will deliver an address on the Social Security system before the Senior Senate of New Bedford, which includes representatives from all senior citizens' groups in the Greater New Bedford area. From 1 to 2 Friday afternoon Mr. Studds will hold a question and answer session for junior and senior American Civics students at New Bedford High School. He will conclude his Friday schedule by appearing from 8 to 11 P.M. on WBSM Radio's Open Line talk show in New Bedford.

On Saturday, February 10, Mr. Studds will meet with a number of representatives of the New England fishing industry to discuss key fishing issues for 1979. He will then fly to Martha's Vineyard. Nantucket, and on Sunday be on Cape Cod and Monday the South Shore.

and ambition -- the complete dramatic works of William Shakespeare--will begin Wednesday, February 14, at 8 P.M. on Channel 2, when THE SHAKESPEARE PLAYS premieres with a new production of "Julius Caesar". Subsequent plays in the series airing this season are "As You Like It", "Romeo and Juliet", "Richard II", "Measure for Measure", and "Henry VIII".

Over the next six years, audiences will see productions especially designed for television of all 37 of Shakespeare's dramatic works, including many which are rarely staged in America.

"Julius Caesar" (February 14) stars Keith Michell ("The Six Wives of Henry VIII") as Antony, Richard Pasco of the Royal Shakespeare Company as Brutus and Charles Gray as Caesar, with David Collings as Cassius and Elizabeth Spriggs and Virginia McKenna as Calpurnia and Portia. The director is Herbert Wise, who directed MASTERPIECE THEATRE's "I, Claudius".

"As You Like It" (February 28) was taped on location at Glamis Castle in Scotland. Helen Mirren and Angharad Rees star as Rosalind and Celia in this pastoral comedy, which also stars Brian Stirner, James Bolam, Richard Pasco and Richard Easton.

Third to be presented (on March 14) is "Romeo and Juliet", with two relative unknowns, Patrick Ryecart and 14-year old Rebecca Saire, in the title roles. Sir John Gielgud, Michael Hordern, Celia Johnson, Laurence Naismith and Joseph O'Connor are also featured in this production of one of Shakespeare's most enduringly popular plays.

The final three plays of the season are "Richard II" (March 28), with Derek Jacobi ("I, Claudius") in the title role; "Measure for Measure" (April 11) starring Kate Nelligan as the saintly Isabella and Tim Pigott-Smith as the hypocritical Angelo; and "Henry VIII" (April 25) with Claire Bloom as Queen Katharine, Timothy West as Cardinal Wolsey and John Stride in the title role.

In the United States, THE SHAKESPEARE PLAYS will be the focal point of a major educational effort. An extensive package of audio-visual materials has been prepared and distributed free of charge to secondary schools across the country by Making a Lot of Noise in Paris. A funny, biting portrait of a divided French left and the emergence of a group of intellectuals influenced by Solzhenitsyn's bitter indictment of the Soviet Union. This premiere film of the new WORLD season is by Michael Rubbo ("Waiting for Fidel"). One hour.

February 10, Channel 2, 9:00 P.M., DEBUT: THE HOLLYWOOD MUSICALS, On The Town. Three sailors ready for a lark land in New York City for a twenty-four hour sightseeing tour. A hide and seek game ensues which leads the trio (and friends) through the Museum of Natural History, a round of nightclubs, and a Coney Island honky tonk. The 1950 classic stars Gene Kelly, Frank Sinatra, Betty Garrett, Ann Miller, Jules Munshin and Vera Ellen. Two hours.

February 10, Channel 2, 11:00 P.M., CHINESE NEW YEAR CELEBRATION. Live coverage from San Francisco of the Chinese new year events, with live interviews and several preproduced film segments. Subjects will include the U. S. recognition of Mainland China, the history of the San Francisco Chinese community, and the history of the community's celebration of the new year. One hour.
